The above quote from our first president magnifies the importance of our Second Amendment rights. Many speak of our Second Amendment as a negotiable idea, or an antiquated law from an era that has passed. Wrong. The ability for a people to take up arms to defend themselves is crucial to the survival of our Republic. Kevin is a lifelong gun owner and constitutional conservative. We must unite in this important battle against liberal politicians. Please stand with Kevin as he stands for our Second Amendment rights.
